

2003 Greetings from Aldene and Barry

The really big news for 2003 was Haley's marriage to Bob Brozman on July 4. The wedding was fantastic! Haley and Bob's musician collaborators from around the world (e.g., Okinawa, India, La Reunion Island, France and Australia) provided the music. They issued a wedding CD as a gift to all the guests!

One wonderful part of the wedding week was meeting Bob's family – our new in-laws - and acquiring a wonderful "step-step" granddaughter, Zoe, age 10.

We visited Bob's family in Boca Raton, Florida, in November.

Aldene with Bob's Aunt Fran, his father Shep and Alice in Florida.

We had a wonderful time vacationing in the Riviera Maya. While staying in Playa del Carmen, south of Cancun, we took the public bus every day to places like Tulum, Akúmal, Xel-ha, Xcaret and Cozumel and snorkeled. We saw moray eels, giant sea turtles, sting rays and hundreds of unbelievably colorful fish. It was fantastic!

Aldene has continued to tag along with Barry on his various business trips such exotic places as Ottawa, Coral Gables, San Diego and Golden, CO where Barry is an Adjunct Professor at the Colorado School of Mines. While there they visited Barry's sister Mickey at home with John on their ranch, the "Broken-O" in Fort Collins where they raise Jacob sheep, shear them and make felt from which Mickey designs hats.

Barry continues as president of the Los Gatos Bicycle Racing Club, he still plays timpani with the Saratoga Symphony, and recruits prospective students for Carnegie Mellon University. Aldene's Mom is holding her own at The Terraces, a continuing care facility in Los Gatos where Aldene and brother Jim visit often. Aldene continues with web development and is taking classes at West Valley College where she finally learned to swim, after swimming "like a small pebble" since age 10. Never too late!
